NEW LIBGUIDE: ASSESSMENT RESOURCES

Assessment doesn’t have to be scary.

Charged with a department project? Interested in gathering more useful data from your own courses? Inspired by the campus visit from the Teagle Foundation in September, we’ve added an assessment LibGuide to Faculty Resources & Services. The Assessment Resources LibGuide features print and online resources alongside the slides from the Teagle workshop and a few worksheets to help you get started or rethink your current approach. Please take a look and let us know what you think!

Fontbonne’s Prayer Shawl Ministry has served the Fontbonne community since 2010! We include Needle workers of all skill levels who gather monthly to create afghans or shawls for those in need while spending some relaxing time together. We are always looking for new members.

Our projects are kept “in house,” meaning that they are given to individuals related to Fontbonne in some way—those from our campus who are ill, who are having children, or who have close relatives in need.

If you know of someone who could benefit by receiving one of our shawls or if you want more details about joining the group, contact Jane Theissen in the Library jtheissen@fontbonne.edu 889-4570 or Susan Lenihan slenihan@fontbonne.edu 889-1461.

Do your assignments include the use of library books, journals or videos (digital or print)? Make sure they are still available. Contact your Library Liaison who can quickly check for you.

Library Subject Guides
We’re working hard to provide relevant subject guides for every program and major on campus. You can explore the list of the guides already published here: http://library.fontbonne.edu/libguides. Please share these resources with your students by adding the links to your syllabus or assignment or by embedding them in your course in Blackboard. Please let us know if you have ideas for additions or improvements! We are also happy to create a new guide for you. Contact Rebecca van Kniest at rvankniest@fontbonne.edu
