October 15, 1967 marks the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the Fontbonne Library building.

“An event of great significance occurred on October 15, 1976. The Fontbonne College library was dedicated with special ceremonies...The actual move into the new building had taken place in the spring of the year. The move was a feat of human cooperation, orchestrated by Sister Alberta Anne. After discarding several methods used to transfer books, she settled for a human chain. Students, faculty and staff walked up the stairs at one end of Ryan Hall to the fourth floor library, picked up a pre-measured and numbered armload of books, exited the building by the opposite stairs and carried the books to a specific space on a particular shelf in the new building. Fortified with soda and snacks, the workers transported more than 50,000 books and periodicals that May 17, 1967.” (Strong as Granite by Sr. Jane Hassett, pg. 72)

Plans are underway for a celebration later this fall. Stay tuned!

Fake news has been a hot topic for some time now. The ability to tell accurate news from fake news is an important skill for all to develop. Check out our LibGuide that will help you (and your students) do exactly that:

http://library.fontbonne.edu/fake-news

Digital Resources News

CANCELLED:
Library, Information Science & Technology Abstracts (LISTA) with Full Text
WWD Archives

RENAMEd:
Proquest Newsstand is now called Global Newsstream

REMINDER:
As you can see, digital resources and print periodicals get discontinued, canceled, and otherwise changed over time. Please check your assignments against the available resources on our webpage before you send students looking for specific titles. Or ask your favorite librarian for help!

Library Hours:
Mon - Thurs
7:30 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.
Friday
7:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Saturday
9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Sunday
1:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

We, Myself, and Why? (Dedicated Semester 2017)

Join us as we gear up for the eleventh Dedicated Semester. We’ve got a brand-new LibGuide on Identity along with a display in the lobby. Keep an eye on Scriffin, the Library Owl and the new dedicated Instagram account for updates and featured resources!

facebook.com/fontbonnededicated
instagram.com/fbudedicated
twitter.com/fbulibrary

This fall Judy Schmitt, a Library Science student from Mizzou, will be completing an internship with us. She will usually be working on Thursdays, but you will see her all over the library as she learns about instruction, reference, circulation, technical services, administration, and archives. Say hello when you see her!
NEW TOTAL ECLIPSE GUIDE – NOT JUST FOR THE ECLIPSE

Perhaps with all the excitement surrounding the eclipse and the first week of classes, you haven’t had time to check out our special LibGuide for the eclipse. It’s not too late! Our new introductory astronomy guide includes a wealth of library and online space-related resources, including new books, popular science magazines, and a page just for kids. And don’t miss the great display at the front desk!

library.fontbonne.edu/eclipse

What do you mean you don’t use OverDrive?! We’re adding new audio and ebooks all the time (and we love to get suggestions...). Here are some of the recent highlights:

• A Fine Mess: A Global Quest for a Simpler, Fairer, and More Efficient Tax System
• Foxlowe: A Novel
• The Hearts of Men: A Novel
• Ice Ghosts: The Epic Hunt for the Lost Franklin Expedition
• The Moth Presents All These Wonders: True Stories About Facing the Unknown
• Thirteen Reasons Why
• Tinseltown: Murder, Morphine, and Madness at the Dawn of Hollywood
• We Should All Be Feminists

Come by with questions if you need help getting started:

http://library.fontbonne.edu/overdrive

BANNED BOOKS WEEK 2017:
September 24th—September 30th

Supporting intellectual and academic freedom is an important part of our mission here at Taylor Library, so we look forward to the American Library Association’s celebration of banned books every year. This fall we’re working on a new Banned Books LibGuide! Get a sneak-peak here:

http://library.fontbonne.edu/banned-books

Circulation Desk: (314) 889-1417
Reference Desk: libraryhelp@fontbonne.edu