Welcome (Back) to Campus!

As there are lots of new faces on campus this fall, the faculty and staff of the Jack C. Taylor Library would like to officially welcome you to campus. And to those who are returning from summer break, whether it be a few days or a few months, we are happy to see you back. We missed you! This newsletter will bring you up to date on a few new things we have been working on over the summer and provide a glimpse of future happenings in the Library this semester. First, we have added two new digital resources – ProQuest Newsstand and WWD Archives (details on page 2). We also dropped LexisNexis and EconLit. Please be sure to make adjustments to your assignments, if necessary.

And speaking of assignments, if you send students (physically or electronically) to the Library to access specific resources, please check with your Liaison Librarian to make sure we still have that resource available. A list of Liaison Librarians is included in this newsletter.

We look forward to working with you this year. Let us know how we can support your teaching.

Library Retreat

The Fontbonne Library faculty and staff spent the morning of their annual retreat on August 12th visiting the University City Public Library, checking out (pun intended) some of the new technology they are adding thanks to a three-year grant from MOREnet. U City Public Library’s Christa Van Herreweghe, Assistant Director, and Bill Coleman, IT, explained their plans to create a makerspace in the Library where patrons can come and create. New technology and programs include recording booths, film editing software, a 3-D scanner and printer, Google Glass, and video cameras and ChromeBooks for checkout. It was a great opportunity to get to know our neighbors a little better and see some cutting-edge technology in action.

We welcome two new partners, Colorado Alliance of Research Libraries and Tulsa City-County Library to the MOBIUS consortium. You may now request items from Colorado and Tulsa through the MOBIUS Union Catalog. For details, click on the MOBIUS catalog link on the Library webpage.

Digital Resources

The Library Advisory Council agreed to drop two resources and pick up two new digital resources at a meeting last spring. EconLit and LexisNexis were dropped due to low usage. The new digital resources fill a gap in our offerings. Access to ProQuest Newsstand and WWD Archives were both acquired this July. ProQuest Newsstand provides access to major newspapers -- New York Times, Wall Street Journal, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Chicago Tribune, Washington Post, USA Today, Los Angeles Times, Boston Globe, The Guardian and numerous other national and regional titles. WWD Archives providing access to the digitized version of the entire run of Women’s Wear Daily (also known as WWD), from the first issue in 1910, is widely considered the ‘Wall St Journal’ of the fashion industry. Both of these, along with all our other digital resources, are available on the Library’s webpage: http://library.fontbonne.edu/library-home

Info Lit Corner

INT199 Information Navigation and Evaluation underwent a total revision this summer, including a new textbook and all new assignments. Although the course was due for an update, this revision was also based on new “standards” for information literacy from the Association of College and Research Libraries entitled Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education. You can read more about the new Framework on the Task Force’s website: http://acrl.ala.org/ilstandards/wp-content/uploads/2014/02/Framework-for-IL-for-HE-Draft-2.pdf

Phone Charging Station

Over the summer, a new piece of equipment made its debut in the Library. A new cell phone charging station is now located in the Information Commons against the back wall and includes connectors for all types of phones.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT Liaisons -- 2014-2015

Each academic department at Fontbonne University has a designated Library Liaison who is responsible for collection development and library instruction in those subject areas. Please contact your Liaison with any questions regarding the Library, requests for instruction sessions, information in our collection development policies, or suggestions for materials to be added to the Library collection.
